

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellowman; and,

WHEREAS, Marcia Rummel has lived in South Dakota for thirty-eight years; and,

WHEREAS, Marcia has been employed in the Driver License Division of the Department of Commerce and Regulation in Pierre, South Dakota, as a staff assistant; and,

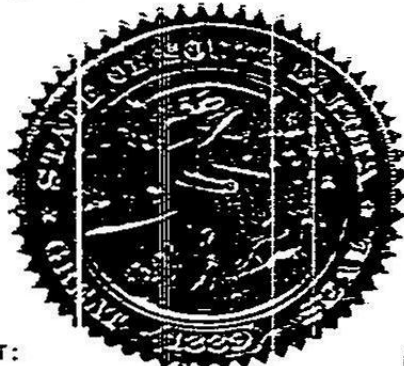

WHEREAS, Marcia has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, On September 29, 1989, after more than twenty-eight years of service to the department and this great state, Marcia is retiring and taking time to spend with her family and travel:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 29, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and relatives in wishing her good luck in the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

George S. Mickelson
GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
